Last Will and Testament

We, the ninth grade class, leave the following to those who are staying at J.F.K.

We, Mr. Bloomberg's 2nd period algebra class leave him all the word problems Mark Patsky "set-up" so well.

We, Mr. Andy's first period class, leave him the book, Patience is the Best Policy, for all the times he lost his patience with us.

We, Mr. LaBrech's 4th period last year's 8th grade class, leave Cindy Meyers to him so he'll have somebody to look down on.

We, Lee Ann Fleming and Carleen Frangiamore, leave many thanks for the super-great times we had being soccer managers.

We, Dianna Allen and Denise Anderson, leave the Newspaper all our articles that we didn't turn in.

I, John Giordiano, after getting all I can from it and carrying on the tradition, leave the book I Love Myself to Billy Teed.

I, Anna Mills, leave Mr. Pastore the nickname "Chubbs."

We, Laurie Ellis and Kathy Ferreira, leave all of our fond memories and treasured moments never to be forgotten of our friends going to Enfield High.

We, Sue Albro and Beth Spejewski leave Mrs. Gaj a squirrel's tail and a crow's foot in hopes she'll never forget us in the play Peter Rabbit.

We, Patty Manning and Michele Schick leave Mr. Clough the "How to Ski" in hopes he'll catch on and learn.

We the ninth grade girls at J.F.K. leave with all the fond memories we've had with all the great friends we've met these last three years.

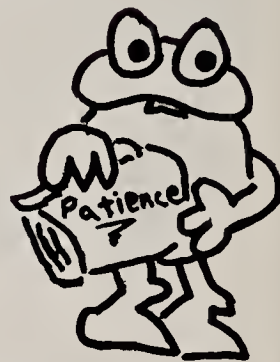

I, Michele Schick, leave anyone who has Mr. Clough for home room my tradition of being late, getting lectured, and not even listening.

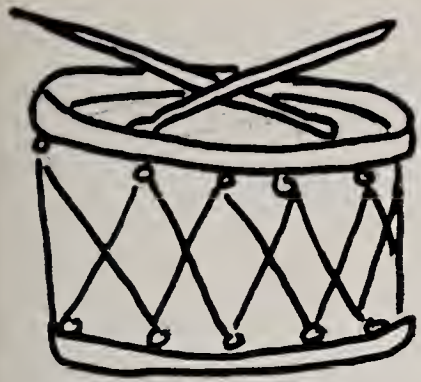

We, Gale Wylot, Diane Newsam, Rove Oliveri and Laurie Green leave Denise Maznicki the leadership of the "Itty Bitty Committee" in hopes she gets better results than we did.

We, Mr. Clarkin's former students, leave him a bottle of "No Doze" so that maybe he'll be able to stay awake during his classes.

We, the newspaper staff leave Miss Gademan a giant bottle of ink so that her newspaper can always continue to be an "Ink Blot"

We, Miss Kanner's 5th period Spanish class leave her one pair of platform shoes, she won't be "la mas de la clase"

We, Mr. Bodnar's classes leave him our only wish that he talks louder so we won't get the urge to fall asleep.

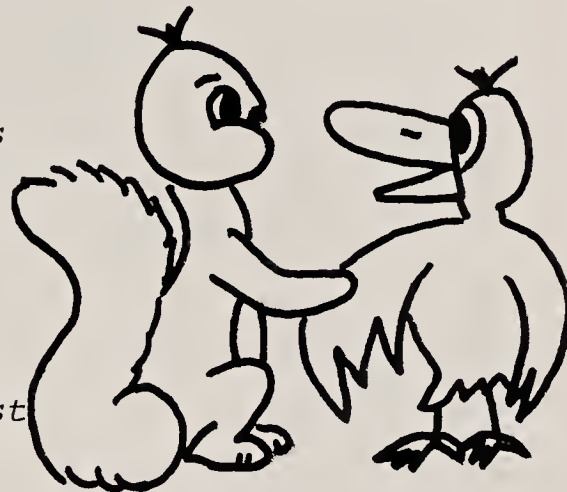

We, the Red House dance committee, leave next year's committee better decorations.

Every ninth grader in Mr. Krautcuk's study leave him a box of throat losangers so he will never get a sore throat while telling us to turn around, get in your own seat and throw the gum away.

I, Andrea Baer, leave all the teachers, Guidance Counselors and the Administration the ability my mother has to keep my two brothers Ron and Mike from fighting.

We, the ninth grade girls, leave the 8th grade boys unwillingly wishing they were coming with us.

I, Carleen Frangiamore, leave this school with some of my fondest memories of the super-great times I had, but most importantly the truly beautiful people I shared with them.

We. Mr. Haley's 9th grade classes leave him on unabridged dictionary to improve his vocabulary.

We, Patty Manning, Terry Szczechowicx , Lori Reardon, and Denise Hurley leave 8th graders in Blue House Mr. Bloomberg and all his dull stories.

We, Michele Schick, and Patty Manning, leave Kennedy and many fond memories.

I, Robin Wagner, leave any 8th grader, who has Miss Nealon for gym, my ability to break my fingers while playing softball and football.

We, the ninth grade fourth period study students and all our predecessors, leave Mr. Climan all our snowball fights we had that he didn't know about.

We, Starla Muraska, Patty Manning, Laurie Reardon, Michelle Malloy and Paula Lemeck leave Mrs. Ryan all the good times we had with her and all the better times we had without her.

We, Kevin Zukowski and Sue Downs, leave our eyes to any two 9th graders next year to stare at each other until they're both out of sight.

I, Janet Kula, leave next year's "A" Band President the percussion section in hopes that he or she can figure out a way to control them.

We, Andrea Baer and Kathy Rejman leave Mr. Cove 103 reasons why people aren't dumb.

We, Lori Fetko and Michele Pollard, leave Lisa Messiner the book Frosty the Snowman

We, Kerry Buckley, Lisa Cunningham and Caroline Curylo leave Mr. Charland all the times he had to interrupt his class to change our seats.

We, Ray Desroches and Dave Hancock, leave Mr. Scheck a new pair of "Sheer Energy" pantihose in hopes that they will stimulate his legs to walk faster in the hallways.

We, Kevin Cabrera and Mark Lillis, leave Kennedy still laughing at "Mr. Clave's" skiing ability.

We, Steve Kohler, John Fahy and Kevin Theriault, leave Mr. Bojarski a bag of munchies.

We, Kelley Robbins, Mary Holmes, M.J. Rielly, Bill Schleicher, Larry Moore, Jerry Cammilleri, Steve Roman, Kerry Shea, leave Mr. Stoll boxes and boxes of florescent ties.

We, Lynn Folger, Kim Gamble and Coleen Ford leave Mr. Sweet 10 free voice lessons so he can sing better study halls.

We, Laurie Gonzales and Mary Boozang, leave Mr. fisher a one way ticket to Africa.

We, Ginny Matt and Rose Oliveri, leave Mr. Cowles a book entitled 200 Easy Rank-outs, for those few moments when he couldn't think of any swift comebacks.

We, the ninth graders, leave our spot outside Red House to all the 8th graders in hopes that they will carry on the tradition of standing there.

We, Mary Holmes and Carlene Ricci, leave to Mrs. Backstrom a pair of flat-heeled shoes and 2 loving monkeys.

We, Mrs. Dumais' students, leave her a platform to stand on so the kids in the back of the room can see her.

We, Windy Silvia, Robin Wagner, Janet Kula, Margaret Dolan, Janet Wilbur, and Laurie Richards, leave Mrs. Langlois one black cape, and a pair of fang teeth in case she gets the urge to be Dracula again.

We, Mr. Milroy's 3rd period biology students leave him one play to attend, a front row of band members and all our double lab periods we had to miss half of.

Everyone, (including "Elmer") who knew and loved Miiron, leave him to this school, in hopes that someone knows where he is.

Mrs. Dumais gives to those faithful students who continued their work on the yearbook right to the deadline a very special thanks.

Thank you to Mr. Connors and Mr. Pastore for some of their candid's.

Thank you to Mrs. Ivansin for typing the yearbook.

Can't breathe! Can't breathe!

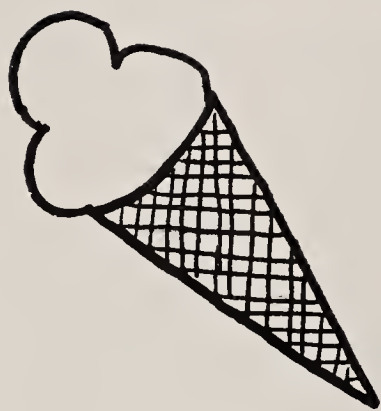

Oh, I'm so embarrassed.
